Section 4. Special Meetings. At any time during the interval between Annual Meetings, special meetings of the Voting Members may be called by the Rector, or by not less than one third of the members of the Vestry, or upon the written request of not less than 25 Voting members filed with the Rector, or in the Rector's absence, with the Senior Warden. Publication of the notice of the meeting in the parish newsletter or electronic "e-blast" or on the Church's website (www.allsaintsmd.org) posting shall be construed as meeting this requirement of notification. All such notices shall indicate whether the meeting is an annual meeting or a special meeting. At a special meeting, only business described in the notice may be conducted.

ARTICLE II

The Vestry

Section 1. Eligibility. Every Voting Member of the Church, as defined in Section 2 of Article I of these Bylaws, shall be eligible to serve as a Vestry Member. No more than one member per household may serve on the Vestry at a time. In addition, no household members living with any paid All Saints' staff may serve on the Vestry.

Confirmation is not required for membership on the Vestry.

A Vestry Youth Member shall be a Voting Member of the Church and be at least 16 and not more than 21 years of age at the time of election. The existence of the Vestry Youth Member shall not preclude any voting member who is younger than 21 but at least 16 years of age from being elected to a 3-year term or to fill an unexpired term.

Section 2. Number and Term of Office. The Vestry of the Church shall consist of the Rector and nine elected lay members and one Youth Member and one Youth Alternate, chosen from among the Voting Members of the Church. Each year, three Vestry Members shall be elected to serve one 3-year term and one Youth Member and one Youth Alternate shall be elected to serve a 1-year term until their successors are sworn into office. At each Annual Meeting, lay Vestry Members shall also be elected to fill the remainder of the unexpired terms of one or two years for those Vestry members who have left the Vestry before the expiration of their term of office during the previous 12-month period. A lay member shall take office immediately upon the lay member's election and taking the oath of office as a Vestry member. The lay member shall normally serve until the lay member's replacement is elected and sworn in.

No lay member, having served a full term of three or more years on the Vestry (or one year for the Youth Member), shall be eligible for re-nomination or re-election to the Vestry for a period of one year after the lay member's term has expired. Any lay member, having filled an interim vacancy of less than three years (or one year for the Youth Member), however, shall be eligible for re-nomination and re-election for a full 3-year term (or one year term for the Youth Member).

Section 3. Nomination. Candidates for election to the Vestry from the Voting Members of the Church shall be nominated in the following manner:

No later than the regularly scheduled November monthly Vestry meeting in advance of each annual meeting (occurring each February per these bylaws), the Rector shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of five Voting Members, not more than two of whom shall be members of the existing Vestry. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at least as many Voting Members to serve as Vestry Members as there are vacancies in the Vestry to be filled by the election at the annual meeting.

The Nominating Committee shall submit to the Vestry the names of those persons so nominated at least one month prior to the Annual Meeting. The Vestry shall make known the names of the nominees to the congregation by publication in the Church bulletin and through "e-blast" and the Church's website (www.allsantsmd.org).

Any group of five or more Voting Members may nominate a candidate or candidates for the Office of Vestry Member by submitting such nomination or nominations, over their signatures to the Registrar at least four weeks prior to the Annual Meeting. The Vestry shall immediately make known the names of the additional nominees to the congregation by publication in the Church bulletin, or by such other means as the Vestry may select.

No persons shall be nominated to serve on the Vestry unless they have previously agreed to serve if elected.

Nominees shall be active participants of All Saints' through their time, talents and treasure. Nominees for the Vestry shall be recorded financial pledgers. This demonstrates a commitment to All Saints' but does not have a minimum required financial amount.

Section 4. Election. Vestry Members shall be elected at the annual meeting by the Voting Members. Voting by proxy shall not be permitted. Voting by absentee ballot, as described in Section 5 below, shall be permitted. The presiding officer of the meeting shall appoint a Voting Member present to act as Chief Teller, along with such additional Tellers as may be needed. The Registrar, or in the Registrar's absence, an appointed Voting Member of the Parish, shall act as Secretary for the meeting.

The Youth of the parish shall present at the Annual Meeting their candidates for Youth Member and Alternate Youth Member for the Vestry. Candidates are then approved by voice vote by simple majority of the Voting Members of the parish. At Vestry meetings, in the absence of the Youth Member, the Alternate Youth Member may exercise the Youth Member's vote.

All elections, except for the Youth Member, shall be by written ballot, unless otherwise ordered. The election shall be decided by the majority of the whole number of votes cast. If the number of nominees equals the number of vacancies to be filled in the election, the Secretary may be instructed on motion, unanimously adopted, to cast the ballot for the person or persons nominated, and such person or persons on a ballot shall be declared to be duly elected.

In the event the Annual Meeting cannot be conducted in person, the Annual Meeting may be held virtually using an online conferencing platform. The votes may be gathered using a sufficiently secure online electronic voting platform.

On each ballot, the individual Voting Member must vote for as many candidates as there are positions to fill.

Those three nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected to serve a full 3-year term. If interim term vacancies are to be filled, then those nominees receiving the next highest number of votes in succession shall be elected to fill first a remainder 2-year term, and a remainder 1-year term vacancy.

After the ballots have been counted by the Tellers, the Chief Teller shall announce to the meeting the names of the persons elected. If an election is not completed on the first ballot, before the next ballot is taken, the Tellers shall eliminate from the ballot such nominees who received the least number of votes on the first ballot, as may be necessary to reduce the number of nominees to no more than twice the number of vacancies to be filled. If after the second ballot all vacancies have not been filled by the consent of the majority, a motion may, then or after any succeeding ballot, be entertained to fill the vacancy or vacancies still existing. The nominee or nominees who have received the highest number of votes, but less than a majority, on the preceding ballot shall be declared duly elected.

Section 5. Absentee Ballots. Voting Members should attend the Annual Meeting if at all possible. In those rare instances where Voting Members are not able to attend the annual meeting, absentee ballots will be made available through application to the Rector or to the Rector's designee. The Church Office will mail or transmit as an attachment to an email, an absentee ballot to the Voting Member requesting it, together with a return envelope addressed to the Registrar. The Voting Member may return the ballot via either return mail or email to the Registrar. The Church Office will maintain a record of the absentee ballots sent out, and will provide this list to the Registrar at the Annual Meeting. Absentee ballots must be received by the Registrar prior to the Annual Meeting and will be counted by the Tellers on the first ballot and as long as a nominee remains in contention for the office. If using a secure online electronic voting platform, absentee ballots may be entered anytime up to one week prior to the Annual Meeting.

Section 6. Vacancies. If by reason of death, resignation or any other cause, a vacancy shall occur in the Vestry, the remaining Vestry Members may, by a majority vote of those present at a duly constituted meeting, elect a Voting Member to fill such vacancy to serve only until the next Annual Meeting. In the discretion of the Vestry, however, any such vacancy may also remain unfilled until a replacement is made by nomination and election at the next Annual Meeting in the manner provided in Sections 2, 3 and 4 of this Article.

Section 7. Duties and Powers. The Vestry shall act as Trustees for the Church in accordance with the public laws of the State of Maryland including those regulating religious corporations affiliated with the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Maryland and shall have and exercise all corporate power and privileges of the Church under such laws.

Section 8. Meetings. Regular meetings of the Vestry shall normally be held monthly, except that the Vestry may elect to change meeting dates as they consider it desirable.

Special meetings may be called at any time or place by the Rector or by not less than one third of the number of Vestry members. Notice of the time and place of all meetings shall be given to each Vestry member via email, text, in person, or by telephone not less than 24 hours preceding the meeting or by mail posted not less than two days preceding the date of such meeting. Confirmation of receipt of such notice is necessary to ensure delivery and receipt of the notice. No business shall be transacted at special meetings except that specified in the notice.

Vestry meetings are open to visiting members of the congregation, assisting clergy, and other staff as observers with voice but no vote. Visitors may be excluded at times when the Vestry enters an Executive Session for discussions involving sensitive topics such as, but not limited to, personnel compensation, staffing, or disciplinary issues.

Section 9. Quorum and Presiding Officer. Six lay members of the Vestry shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Vestry. Officers who are not members of the Vestry shall not be counted for purposes of determining a quorum. The Rector shall preside at all meetings of the Vestry at which he or she is present. In the absence of the Rector, the Senior Warden, or in his or her absence, the Junior Warden, shall preside. The presiding officer at Vestry meetings shall be entitled to vote only in the event of a tie.

Section 10. Removal from the Vestry. A Vestry member may be removed from office for failure to live up to the Vestry member's oath of office or to meet the obligations expected of a Vestry Member by virtue of neglect or behavior, in the following manner: At a duly constituted meeting of the Vestry, a vote of two-thirds of the total members of the Vestry shall be sufficient to cause the question of removal to be taken before the congregation at an annual or special meeting as determined by the Vestry. At the duly constituted annual or special meeting, a majority of two-thirds of the Voting Members present shall be required for the recall of the Vestry member in question.

In addition to the bound book, the minutes and other documentation should be backed up electronically, either with a backup device or a cloud based secure location. Electronic versions of meeting minutes shall be posted on the Church's website within one week after approval. At the conclusion of the calendar year, the minutes of the Vestry meetings shall be given to the Parish Archivist for binding and permanent preservation. The Registrar shall be charged with the responsibility of keeping up-to-date at least two copies of the Bylaws which shall be open to inspection in the Church at reasonable business hours by any Voting Member of the Church. In addition, the Registrar shall perform such other duties as assigned by the Rector or Vestry.

Section 6. The Treasurer. The Treasurer shall keep the financial records of the Church and shall have general responsibility of all Church funds, securities and related documents. All monies received by the Church shall be delivered to the Treasurer or deposited in the Church account, and all expenses and other payments shall be made by the Treasurer or under the Treasurer's direction. The Treasurer shall make a report as to the general financial condition of the Church at the annual meetings of the Voting Members and such other reports at the regular Vestry meetings as the Rector or Vestry may request.

Section 7. Other Officers. Such other officers as may be elected by the Vestry shall have the authority and duties and tenure as assigned to them by the Vestry.

Section 7. Bequests and Special Gifts. Bequests and special gifts to the parish shall be maintained in several separate accounts:

- a. Permanently Restricted Endowment. This account shall consist of all gifts and bequests to the endowment that have been restricted by the donors so that the principal may not be invaded.
- b. Vestry Designated Endowment. This account shall consist of all gifts and bequests to the Church that have not been restricted by the donors and have been added to the endowment by the Vestry. The principal of this account may be invaded by the Vestry only on the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the entire Vestry. Unrestricted bequests shall be added to this account. When such bequests are received, the Vestry may elect to withhold up to 10% of the bequest to be used for other purposes. This provision may be suspended on a case-by-case basis upon affirmative vote by two thirds of the entire Vestry. For accounting purposes this account will be classified as temporarily restricted by action of the Vestry.
