

Interim Associate Rector's Report
The Rev. Dr. Joseph Pagano
March 28, 2023

Highlights of Interim Associate Rector's Work since our last vestry meeting:

Worship and Liturgy:

Regular Worship Schedule: Carried out regular Sunday schedule of 8 and 10 AM Eucharists and Wednesday 5:30 PM Eucharists.

Bulletins: I have taken over the task of preparing the bulletins for All Saints' worship services. All Holy Week and special service bulletins are complete.

Interim & Christian Formation:

Baptismal Preparation: I've been coordinating with families who will have children baptized on Pentecost.

Missional Theology: After the heritage piece, the next interim task focuses on mission. I have designed a process for developing a mission statement, a vision statement, a values statement and a motto for All Saints. It has been posted on Trello. I will start offering my parts during Sunday forums On March 26, 2023.

Course on African American Theology: In conversation with the Truth and Reconciliation Committee, I have agreed to offer a short version of my university course on African American Theology and Ethics. The course will conclude on March 29, 2023. Here is a draft of the syllabus:

Other Tasks

Pastoral Care: The Eucharistic Visitors' licenses are now up to date.

I've been making pastoral calls on parishioners in hospital and to shut ins, to the sick and the dying.

With the leadership of Linda Procter the Pastoral Care Teams are now functioning again.
